Happy New Year Northwood Family! It has been a while since I have communicated with you, which means it has been a busy time here at Northwood.

First I would like to give a great big "Thank You" to Jeff Fulford who has volunteered his time to come in and help me by spraying to get rid of the iron stains on the building and also spraying to get rid of the mildew and algae that seems to come out of nowhere.

Next, the initial plantings for the Memorial Garden have been installed. The grounds crew has installed new mulch for them, too. The reason for these plants being placed outside the wall is to create a buffer from the traffic on 580.

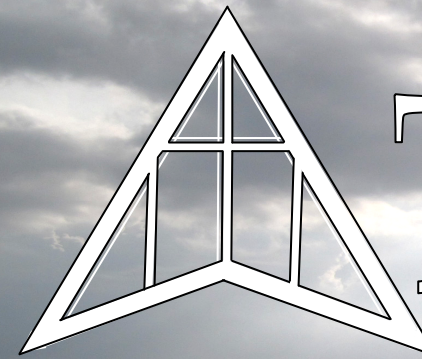

I would also like to note that the WiFi project is under way. All the necessary wiring is now in place.

Lastly, we will be doing some interior work in the next few weeks, concentrating on the North Entrance to start. We have some drywall we will be replacing, patching and painting.

In closing, I am writing you on the Monday before the Garage Sale. What a blessing to see so many willing volunteers helping make it a success. Kudos to Susan Curry for her devotion and organization. I pray that this sale is even more successful than years past.

God Bless,

Jeff

"About Being Presbyterian"

It has been estimated that 58 percent of the members of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) did not grow up in the denomination. I believe that may be very true of us at Northwood Presbyterian, if not more so. This being the case, I want to make available here in our Window Newsletter a series of articles about being Presbyterian. This will be a reminder of what we believe as Christians, but will also be, according to the high percentage of our members who did not "grow up" Presbyterian, something for us to learn or re-affirm together.

First, it is important to say that all that is required to be a member in the Presbyterian Church is to confess the Christian faith, trust in Christ as our forgiving savior, promise to follow Christ and Christ's example for living and commit oneself to attend church and become involved in its work.

In saying this, note that we as a church are then a big umbrella to which all Christians can readily belong. This big umbrella idea of the Presbyterian Church, or "big tent" as some have referred to it, reminds me of my favorite definition of the Presbyterian Church which I've remembered over the years from resources and which others have found helpful in new member classes. This definition has always stuck with me and goes like this:

"The Presbyterian Church is part of a Christian denomination which is democratically organized to embrace the faith common to all Christians!"

We are indeed a big tent! What I have learned from serving as a pastor (which is also, by the way, called a teaching elder in the Presbyterian Church) is that for nearly thirty years every person I've ever met who walked through the doors of church has come into the Christian faith in their own unique way. I believe it can be said that no two people come to faith in exactly the same way. Yes, there may be similar ways that people come to faith, like by growing up in church because parents brought them since they were baptized, but this isn't true for everyone.

I remember a time in my own life as a young boy that my parents did not always go to church, but they did support me going, and we attended several churches off and on. My Dad worked on Sundays and there were several years I remember riding the school bus to my best friend's church. (Marty was my best friend, and Marty's Dad was the pastor of the Oak Street Baptist Church.) I rode the school bus every weekday to Kindergarten at that church so it seemed natural to me to ride the school bus to church on Sunday as well. (Can you imagine what would happen if Pinellas County allowed us to use a school bus on Sundays to run a bus route to bring children to Sunday School at Northwood!) Well, several years after attending the Oak Street Church, at about the age of 10, my Dad became the construction foreman for building the new sanctuary for the oldest Presbyterian Church in the Chattanooga, Tennessee area (Hamilton County). Not long after that, my family and I became members of that small but alive church known as The First Presbyterian Church of Soddy-Daisy, Tennessee. I did not know all there was to know about being Presbyterian at that point, much less about being a Christian, but becoming a member of any Christian church is simply a starting point to greater learning and service. This is certainly true of becoming a member of the Presbyterian Church.

There are many roads people travel in discovering faith in God. I have learned from listening to many of you that some of you have come to faith because of the influence of a Sunday School teacher, or a pastor, or you have had a life changing experience of some sort which turned your life around. I know some at Northwood who recall attending a Billy Graham Crusade and giving their life to Christ at that time. There are even some who have had a "Damascus Road" experience like the Apostle Paul. I also know that some of you are still exploring what it means to believe in God and accept faith in Jesus Christ. Rest assured that many times the call to faith in God may be accompanied by confusion, uncertainty and even periods of denial.

What I'm trying to say is that however we come to faith in God, what we believe as Presbyterians is that there is something about the Lordship of Jesus Christ that lays claim on our life and calls us to follow Him and be part of the local church. And while churches of other denominations may be diverse, we as Presbyterians celebrate our diversity. Note that we do not seek uniformity as Christians, but rather as Presbyterians we seek unity in Jesus Christ, for no two people have the same experience of faith.

So then, anyone who can be a Christian can be a Presbyterian. We believe in one Lord, one Faith, one baptism, one God and Father of us all. We affirm this each and every month when we partake of the bread of the Lord's Table together, for "we are ONE in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen!"

Next month I'll pick up back up on what we believe about being Presbyterian and what we believe about the Bible.
Your Pastor and Friend,

Chris

Children's Ministry

Justine Ruisz, Director of Children's Ministry

Worship Preparation Class For Children :

This year the Children's Ministry team will conduct a special Worship Preparation Class for two weeks in February. Children in 2nd grade (or 3rd-5th grades who have not already attended) are invited to this class. Worship Preparation Class is designed to help children feel more at home in the worship service. God created us to be in community with each other and worship is the place we unite together in praise and prayer and hear the word proclaimed. We need to encourage our children that worship is for them as well as adults. We can do this by teaching them the different parts of the worship service and its significance. We want our children to take an active role in our worship and this class gives them the information and confidence they need to fully participate. The class schedule is as follows:

- Sunday, February 15, 10:30-11:00 am, Room 10 Parent Mtg
- Sunday, February 15th & 22th, 10:30–12:00 am, Rooms 4-6
- Sunday, March 1st, Children Recognized

On the Sunday they are recognized in their worship service, they will receive an Adventure Bible, which is the New International Early Reader's Version (ages 6 through 9). The Adventure Bible is colorful and offers many pictures and explanations to help children understand the Scriptures. If a child already has this Bible, we can either give them an older version of this Bible, the Adventure Bible Devotional Book, or some other age appropriate devotional book.

If you would like your child to attend this class, please RSVP to Justine Ruisz and choose which Bible or devotional book you prefer your child to receive:

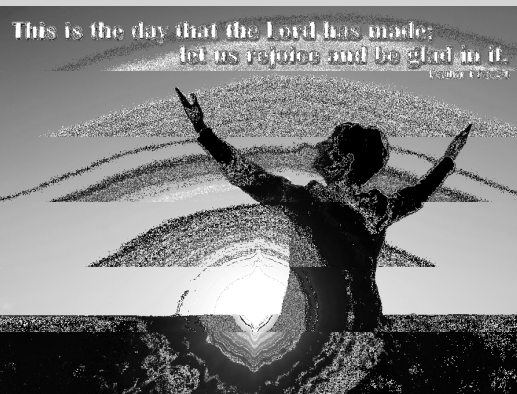

1. Adventure Bible Early Reader Version (ages 6-9)
2. Adventure Bible (ages 9-12)
3. Adventure Bible Devotional Book

King's Kids:

We are looking for help with our King's Kids mid-week program which will resume in the New Year, on January 21st. If you can help do crafts, play Bible games or assist with the children from 4-6 please contact Justine Ruisz.

Stephen Ministry: An Active Caring Ministry

Our Stephen Ministry program consists of church members who have been equipped with 50 hours of training to provide confidential, emotional, spiritual, one-to-one Christian care to individuals who are experiencing struggles in their lives. These difficult circumstances include loss of a loved one, illness, aging, spiritual crisis, a lay-off, relocation, divorce, single parenthood, loneliness, or discouragement, as well as many other life challenges. A Stephen Minister is a caring, Christian friend who will walk beside a person who is hurting and listen, pray, support and encourage them. Typically, a Stephen Minister will meet faithfully with his or her care receiver for about an hour each week, for as long as there is a need. To learn more about how you, a family member or a friend can benefit from having a Stephen Minister, please contact Pastor Paul at 727-796-8090 or paul@northwoodpc.org.

Dear Northwood Family,

Thank you so much for all your prayers, flowers and visits during my illness. It is greatly appreciated and warmly felt! Thanks again, Lois Marsh

A Food Pantry "Thank You"

"Thank You" to everyone who helped to make the NPC food pantry a success in the past year. Thank you to the King's Kids, the Kid's Corner Preschool, the TCI Class, the NPC Angels and everyone in the congregation who contributed or served in this local community mission. The need in 2014 far exceeded that in any previous years. We distributed approximately 337, which represents an increase of more than 50% over 2013. Donations of both food and money are appreciated, as the money is needed when the donations of specific food items does not keep up with the demand. While the periodic food drives by various church groups are very significant, the need continues on a daily basis, so your regular contributions are vital. Again, thank you for your support of this important mission.

Attention Youth & Adults

Are you interested in joining the puppet ministry group? We are re-starting the program, so no experience is needed—only your enthusiasm and interest in learning!
