

HYMN NOTES:

(#372) "O for a World" by Miriam Therese Winter (b. 1938)

The text was written for the Presbyterian Women's Triennial Conference held at Purdue University in July 1982. The theme of the conference was "Nevertheless...the Promise," and the stage of the principal plenary space featured a large rainbow consisting of six broad bands of the colors of the spectrum, two of which were reversed to express God's unexpected intervention into human life. This hymn text describes a world that does not yet exist, except in the mind of God; but at the same time it is a call for us to help that world come into being. We must work to eliminate random violence, racial and religious divisions and inflammatory political rhetoric as we strive to live "where everyone respects each other's ways...and all is done with justice..." (stanza 1)

WE CONFESS

CALL TO CONFESSION Paul Means, Associate Pastor

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Most merciful Father, we have done things which are wrong and strayed from Your ways. We have followed too much the desires of our own hearts. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; and we have done those things which we ought not to have done; and there is nothing good in us. We do not have the courage to care for others, which you call us to do. We have not gone the extra mile to help or turned the other cheek when offended by others. O Lord, forgive those who confess their faults. Restore those who humble themselves before you. Grant that we may hereafter live godly lives to the glory of His name. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE #581 GLORIA PATRI

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen, amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE & THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, Who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
