HYMN NOTES:
“You Walk along Our Shoreline” (170)
This hymn is based on today’s scripture, Matthew 4:18-22. Part of the artistry of this text is the way the identity of the person addressed is gradually revealed. In stanza 1, all references are a nameless “you/your,” like someone seen through a shoreline mist. Stanza 2 introduces “Christ,” and stanza 3 adds “Jesus” and “Lord.” This series of names indicates both identity and relationship. This text also reminds us that the disciples fished with nets requiring more than one person to be involved in the effort. The vocation and ministry to which we are called by our baptism is not a solitary or private endeavor. The work of love and justice takes place in community.

They will call you the City of the Lord, the Zion of the Holy One of Israel. Violence will no more be heard in your land, or destruction within your borders.
