

HYMN NOTES:

“If Thou but Trust in God to Guide Thee (816)

Georg Neumark (1621-1681) was only twenty years old when he wrote this text in the winter of 1641. He was traveling from his home to the University of Königsberg when he was robbed by highwaymen who left him with nothing but his prayer book and a little money sewn into the clothes he was wearing. With no money for school he searched for months for employment and finally by chance, secured an appointment as tutor in the household of a prominent judge. This hymn was written in thanksgiving for this long-sought blessing. The text is based on Psalm 55:22 (“Cast thy burden on the Lord, and he shall sustain thee”). Catherine Winkworth, the great translator of German hymns, twice translated all seven original six-line stanzas. The second time she used the meter of the original tune which is the one we sing today. The tune name is the German of the first line of text.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION *(together)

Loving God, you desire that we may receive your shalom - peace, wholeness, well-being into our hearts, minds, and souls. Forgive us, Dear Lord, when we live lives that instead throw us into confusion, fear and distress and which disorients us from your loving presence. God of healing, God of wholeness, God of peace in the power of the Holy Spirit grant us faith and confidence that in Jesus Christ we can experience your shalom and that in your presence broken lives are made whole. Amen.

*HYMN "Jesus Walked Among the People" RESTORATION

Jesus walked among the people gathered 'round to see and hear.
And a woman, bleeding, sighing, came and joined the others, near.

"If I touch the clothes of Jesus, I believe I will be cured."

So she crept up close behind him, touched his cloak, without a word.

Jesus felt his healing power flow to someone in the crowd;

So he turned to ask "Who touched me?" And the woman, trembling, bowed.

Jesus listened to her story, then he spoke for all to hear:

"Go in peace, your faith has cured you." And her heart gave up its fear.

Faith like hers, so sure and trusting, ours the challenge to embrace.

We must trust in Jesus' promise till we see him face to face.
