HYMN NOTES: Great God, We Sing That Mighty Hand (527)
This hymn was written by Philip Doddridge and published in 1755. Frequently sung as a New Year’s hymn, it also expresses the greatness and mighty power of God. Doddridge (1702-1751) was born in London and was one of twenty children. Orphaned at an early age, the Duchess of Bedford offered to send him to Cambridge, but the offer contained the obligation to become an Anglican priest. Instead, he attended the non-conformist academy in Kibworth and became a nonconformist minister. A supporter of John Wesley and George Whitefield and a friend of Isaac Watts, Doddridge wrote more than 400 hymns. All were published after his death from tuberculosis including, “O Happy Day That Fixed My Choice” and “How Gentle God’s Commands,” both still in modern hymnals.

WE CONFESS

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Together)
Heavenly Father, we confess that we have too often forgotten that we are yours. Sometimes we carry on our lives as if there was no God and we fall short of being a credible witness to You. For these things we ask your forgiveness and we also ask for your strength. Transform us as your people by the renewing of our minds, so that we may live lives acceptable to You, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Vital Faith #6 “Counting our Days” Part 2

WE GO OUT TO SERVE

*HYMN

“Lord, You Have Been Our Dwelling Place”

DUKE STREET

Lord, You have been our dwelling place; a refuge where our feet have trod.
Before You placed all things in space, from everlasting You are God.

Your words can turn us back to dust. Our lives are fragile, like a dream.
As grass which sprouts yet fades at dusk we’re born, we live, but pass unseen.

Our years are but three-score and ten. With special health they reach four-score.
But still they’re filled with pain and sin, soon gone, and then we live no more.

So teach us how to count our days, that wisdom might fill all our time.

Return, O Lord, accept our praise; that through our lives Your love may shine.
Establish, Lord, the work we do, and through it make Your glory known.

As daily we lift praise to You, Your higher pow’r and love is shown.

(Singing Psalm of Joy and Praise)

*BENEDICTION

WE ATTEND IN PRAYER

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE & THE LORD’S PRAYER

““Our Father, Who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.”

(Congregation will stand. If standing is difficult for you, feel free to remain seated.)
