HYMN NOTES: “God of Love and God of Power”
The middle hymn today (8:15 and 11) was written about 1939 and originally had a tune best described as a rousing turn of the century (20th century that is) Sunday School march in 4/4 time. The hymn has not been included in major hymnals except the two most recent Methodist books (1966, 1989). The composer of the tune, Joachim Neander, was most renowned for his hymn texts and poetry. This tune, from 1680, was frequently sung in alternation by various combinations in gathering: male and female voices, choir and congregation, left side/right side, etc. As a youth, Neander had a rather dramatic conversion to the faith after having gone to church to make fun of the pastor. Several years later he was appointed a non-ordained assistant to the same pastor. He has been called the most important Reformed hymn writer of the 17th century. After his death from tuberculosis at age 30, the valley of the Düssel where he used to take long walks, was named Neanderthal in his honor. Here was where the skeleton of Homo neanderthalensis (Neanderthal man) was discovered in 1856. His most famous surviving hymn is “Praise Ye the Lord, the Almighty” #1 in The Hymnal, 1955.

TODAY: Join us as we study chapter 2 of 1 Peter. We will learn that we must live in a pagan society. How do we do that? Is our society pagan? Are we facing persecution? What does God’s word in this chapter tell us? Class starts at 9:45, but come a little early to chat and have a cup of coffee. Doug Shierling is our teacher today.

TCI (Today’s Christian Issues): Rooms 9 and 11 Today: We’ll welcome our own Wolf family - Shaun, Christine, and Ally - to share perspectives on prior mission trips to Honduras and what the goals are for this year’s trip. WE CONFESSION

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Together)
Merciful God, we confess our weaknesses before you. Too many times we have been so consumed with our own needs, we failed to see the needs of others. Too many times we have not believed, even though the truth was here among us. Open our eyes to see the suffering and opportunities around us. Open our hearts to receive the truth of your presence in the world. Forgive us, we pray, and strengthen us to live more faithfully. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON
Leader: Friends, believe the good news of the Gospel.
People: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven. Amen.

PRAYERS OF PRAISE AND THE LORD’S PRAYER
“Our Father, Who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.”

(To symbolize our unity in Christ, we hold the bread until the Elders and Deacons are served and then all partake as one Body. To symbolize our personal relationship with the Lord, we drink of the cup, as the Spirit leads.)

OLD HUNDREDTH

God of love and God of power, thou hast called us for this hour.

God of love and God of power, give us courage, let us hear heaven’s trumpets ringing clear.

God of love and God of power, make us worthy of this hour;
off’ring lives if it’s thy will, keeping free our spir’its still.

You shall go out with joy, be led forth with peace;
And the mountains and hills will burst into shouts of joy before you.

We are not the first to be banished by our fears from thee;
give us courage, let us hear heaven’s trumpets ringing clear.

God of love and God of power, thou hast called us for this hour.

We are not the first to be banished by our fears from thee;
give us courage, let us hear heaven’s trumpets ringing clear.

God of love and God of power, make us worthy of this hour;
off’ring lives if it’s thy will, keeping free our spir’its still.
