MUSIC NOTES:

The Closing Voluntary is by Louis Marchand (1669-1732), a French Baroque organist, harpsichordist, and composer. Born into an organist's family, Marchand was a child prodigy and quickly established himself as one of the best known French virtuosi of his time. He worked as organist of numerous churches and, for a few years, at the French court. Marchand had a violent temperament and an arrogant personality, and his life was filled with scandals, publicized and widely discussed both during his lifetime and after his death.

In one story – ripped from the headlines as they say – an unfavorable remark was made by Louis XIV about Marchand's hands and the composer responded with an improper retort about the king's ears. Not long after that, Marchand departed on an extended musical tour of Germany, some say to escape the financial demands being made by his ex-wife but also perhaps to put some distance between him and the king. The most famous story concerns a harpsichord playing contest that was arranged between Marchand and J.S. Bach in September 1717 in Dresden. Apparently, Marchand heard of the unequalled ability of Bach and he fled the city just before the contest.

Discovery Day Mission Opportunity

On Sunday, August 28, as part of Discovery Day, Northwood is inviting everyone to participate in Beth-El Shoe Sunday by bringing new or used shoes in good condition for the children, youth and adults of the Beth-El Farm Workers Mission in Wimauma, FL. These shoes will be extremely helpful and appreciated as the kids and youth get ready to go back to school and for the farm workers as they prepare to continue their work in the fields this fall. Last time we collected over 280 pairs of shoes, plus a $1,000 donation! Our goal this year is to collect shoes and donations which would enable Beth-El to distribute at least 350 pairs of shoes to the families in their community. Thank you in advance for participating in Beth-El Shoe Sunday and sharing the love of Jesus Christ in this way.

College Student Address Change

One of our Deacon Ministries is to send cards to our college students. Please call Cindy Whiteside at (727) 612-7987 or email Cindy at cindy.whiteside49@yahoo.com if you or a family member has an address change for the upcoming school year. Thank you for your assistance!
