Music Notes: “Shepherd Me, O God” (473)
This text and tune was created in 1985 at the request of the Church of St. Ann in Raritan, NJ. Marty Haugen (b. 1950) was raised in the American Lutheran Church and became a member of the United Church of Christ. Much of his music is written with congregational participation in mind. This setting of “Shepherd Me, O God” has a repeated refrain for congregation (in our hymnal at #473) and is a paraphrase of Psalm 23. He credits his wife for suggesting the use of “shepherd” as a verb in the refrain. Haugen has thirteen titles in our hymnal including “Gather Us In” (401) and the sung communion responses to the Eucharist (409) and the sung benediction (410). Recently we examined mission work in the Middle East, Central America and right here in the Tampa Bay area. We try to understand how we can help address the challenges facing the missionaries themselves, but most especially the people they are trying to serve. This week we’ll turn our attention to Asia, particularly China, as Fred Heider leads a discussion about the rising influence of China and the ways that influence challenges our Christianity. Next week Ken Tobisassen will discuss “Things That Scare Me” including artificial intelligence, inequality, and the abandonment of the nuclear arms treaty. Come join us for coffee, cookies and lively discussion.

CALL TO CONFESION

PRAYER OF CONFESION (Together)
Dear Heavenly Father, we confess that we have too often forgotten that we are yours. Sometimes we carry on our lives as if there was no God and we fail short of being a credible witness to You. For these things we ask your forgiveness and we also ask for your strength. Open our eyes with faith, so we may witness to You in our lives, even when the world seems overwhelming to us. Remind us to be who You would have us to be regardless of what we are doing or who we are with. In Jesus’ name, Amen.

ANTHEM “Always Remember” arr. Gregg Sewell
Come, friends and brothers, come to my table;
Bring me your hope and bring me your fears.
Here in this moment love flows among us;
Share in my suffering, share in my passion;
Though shadows gather, God is here.
Drink from this cup, let life flow through you;
Eat of this bread, come to His table with trusting hearts;
Here in this moment, love flows among us;
Always remember, trust in Him.
