Hymn Notes:
“Dear Lord and Father of Mankind” (169)
John Greenleaf Whittier (1807-1892), as a Quaker, never wrote an actual hymn, for he believed in the ideals of simplicity, stillness, and silence. In the April 1872 issue of The Atlantic Monthly was published his seventeenth stanza poem, “The Brewing of Soma.” It describes how East Indian priests brew “a drink of the gods” from the hallucinogenic soma plant and how its intoxicating properties affect worshipers. The poem concludes with a six-stanza prayer that opens with what has become the first line of this hymn. In this “non-hymn” scriptural allusions are plentiful: disciples rising to follow without a word, Jesus prayer in the calm hills, the still small voice of God speaking to Elijah on Mt. Carmel. The present text corresponds to Whittier’s stanzas 12-14 and 16-17; no changes have been made. In some ways it is ironic that Whittier’s poem became a hymn, given that his clear ideal is silence (as befits a Quaker.) Yet it offers a reminder that we need to listen for that “still, small voice.”

ADULT CHRISTIAN EDUCATION
9:30 A.M. TCI (Today’s Christian Issues) Rooms 9-11
TCI offers congregants an opportunity to explore their faith in relation to “today’s Christian issues”. We welcome young and old alike—from 19 to 90 and every age in between—as our age difference informs our attitudes. This week Marti Huff will explore mental health—who needs it and who gets it. Next week, Garry Justice will complete his four-part series exploring the Ten Commandments as he examines the first and second commandments.

11:00 A.M. Experiencing God Class Room 15, led by Vicki Knueger
The Experiencing God class offers you a place to connect with other believers in the study of God’s word and how it applies to our daily lives. Our goals: to grow in our understanding of the Bible, as Jesus’ own group of disciples did; to meet the needs of others in our group in prayer and ministry; to become equipped for evangelism; and to let the living Word of God dwell richly in us.

11:30 A.M. Sunday Morning Bible Study
This Bible study meets at 11:30am on Sunday mornings in room 6 of the Christian Education Building. We are studying the minor prophets from the Old Testament. We are looking at God’s message of hope and reconciliation to God’s people while they were in exile. The book we are using is part of the Immersion Bible Studies—Micah, Nahum, Habakkuk, Zephaniah, and Malachi by Linda B. Hinton. If you have any questions or would like to purchase a book for the study, please contact Cindy Huffman 727-409-8727 or lucindy1@aol.com. This is a discussion class and is approximately one hour in length. All are welcome! Come join us!

CALL TO CONFESSION
Paul Means, Associate Pastor

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Together)
Gracious and forgiving God, we confess we need your help in keeping our lives from becoming unraveled. We stand in danger of accepting the past as the absolute norm for the future without allowing the Winds of Your Spirit to guide us into new directions. We too often take from the past the ashes rather than the fire of renewal. More of our regrets are false and unreal than they are legitimate. O God of new beginnings, help us to let go of the spiritual baggage of the past, and give it to you for your disposal in forgiveness. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

*CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE #581 GREATOREX
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, amen.

ANTHEM
“All Things Bright and Beautiful” John Rutter
- All things bright and beautiful, all creatures great and small,
- All things wise and wonderful, the Lord God made them all.
- He gave us eyes to see them, and lips that we might tell
- How great is God Almighty, who has made all things well.

OUR MINISTRY WITH CHILDREN
(Children ages 3yrs – 2nd Grade, are welcome to remain in service with their parents or join us in room 3 for Children’s Church.)

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE & THE LORD’S PRAYER
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
