THE SACRAMENT OF THE LORD’S SUPPER

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.
Lift up your hearts.
We lift them up to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The pastor offers prayers of thanksgiving to God, remembering God’s acts of salvation, and concludes:

And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Gloria in excelsis Deo
Praise ye the Lord.
His praise is wonderful in all the earth.
Let his praise fill you with joy.
Hallelujah!
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, amen.

HYMN NOTES

Today, at communion, we will use portions of what is known as The Great Thanksgiving—called communion liturgy that has been used for centuries in the Christian church. Some portions have traditionally been sung, including the section known as the Sanctus (holy) which is rooted in a text from Isaiah 6:3 and echoed in Revelation 4:8. In the second half of the 20th century much of this rich and historic liturgy was recovered by mainline Protestant churches including Presbyterians. With emphasis on involving worshippers as participants as opposed to spectators, much singable and accessible music has been produced toward that goal. Our hymnal, Glory to God, has included many choices in this regard in the section headed “Service Music,” #551-609. Today we will sing together a setting of the Sanctus to a familiar melody.
