

Hymn Notes:

“Take, O Take Me as I Am” (698)

This is one of the best-known and often-used songs from the Iona Community in Scotland and has found its way into numerous hymnals. This brief song appears in the “Leaving” section of Come All You People: Shorter Songs for Worship by the Scottish hymnwriter and pastor John L. Bell (b. 1949). He describes it as “a quiet song of dedication” that “may be used as people walk forward...during an act of commitment.” This is how we will use it today and have sung it in the past on Ash Wednesday as we came forward. The song alludes to Song of Solomon 8:6, “set me as a seal upon your heart, as a seal upon your arm; for love is strong as death, passion fierce as the grave.” The Iona Community is an ancient Christian community on the small island of Iona in the Inner Hebrides Islands of western Scotland. It was founded by St. Columba, a monk from Ireland and missionary to Scotland in 563 A.D. Today, the Iona Community is a place of pilgrimage from all over the world and is a major center for ecumenism, social justice, healing, reconciliation, and worship renewal.

11:00 A.M. Experiencing God Class Room 15, led by Vicki Krueger,

Each day brings new questions. Should I stay? Should I go? Buy it? Sell it? Start it? Stop it? There is one question you can ask that makes it easy to determine the answer to all the other questions. In our video and discussion series, we will learn how asking this question has the potential to save us time, money and tears. All we have to do is ask it. Come join us!

11:00 A.M. “Journey Through” Room 4, led by Vanessa Celotto.

The Journey Through class will not be meeting this week. Class will resume on November 18th and we’ll be studying Exodus 15:22-17:7.

Please contact Cindy Huffman 727-409-8727 for more information. Come join us!

Faithful and loving God, we confess that we have not lived in faith and love. You offer us the gift of salvation, but we spend our lives in vain pursuits. Teach us to seek the way of heaven and to let go of earthly desires so that we might have abundant life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
