WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS

HYMN #32
“I Sing the Mighty Power of God”
ELLACOMBE

I sing the mighty power of God that made the mountains rise,
that spread the flowing seas abroad and built the lofty skies.
I sing the wisdom that ordained the sun to rule the day.
The moon shines full at God’s command, and all the stars obey.
I sing the goodness of the Lord who filled the earth with food.
God formed the creatures through the Word, and then pronounced them good.
Lord, how thy wonders are displayed, where’er I turn my eye,
If I survey the ground I tread, or gaze up on the sky!
There’s not a plant or flower below but makes the glories known.
And clouds arise, and tempests blow, by order from thy throne,
While all that borrows life from thee is ever in thy care,
And everywhere that we can be, thou, God, art present there.

CALL TO CONFESSION
Paul Means, Associate Pastor

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Together)
O Lord of the Heavens, forgive us, for we have ascribed value to our possessions that we have never ascribed to you. We have been burdened by the small, and have neglected that which is of ultimate value. In this time of worship we lay before you our faults, our shortcomings, all the results of our sin. Turn us around, gracious God. Make straight our paths to you. Your transforming love is our heart's desire. Forgive and restore us in the name of Jesus, whose cross and suffering convey your compassion and care for all creation. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE #581
GLORIA PATRI

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen, amen.
PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE & THE LORD’S PRAYER
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

CALL TO OFFERING

HYMN #25
“O Lord, Our God, How Excellent”
(WINCHESTER OLD)
(Paraphrase of Psalm 8)
O Lord, our God, how excellent, how glorious is your name.
Your majesty surrounds the earth, and children sing your fame.
The heavens shout your handiwork; we stand beneath in awe, to think the One who made all things should care for us at all.
Yet you have made us less than gods, surpassing all but you,
with heart and mind, with strength and will, to search for what is true.
Into our hands you’ve placed all things: the earth, the sea; each place we’re called to probe for secret gifts and venture into space.
O Lord, our God, how excellent, how glorious is your name, majestic in your holiness. We sing and praise your fame.

HYMN #625
“O Lord My God”
(HOW GREAT THOU ART)

O Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder consider all the worlds thy hands have made,
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder,
thy power throughout the universe displayed:

refrain: Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to thee:
how great thou art! How great thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to thee:
How great thou art! How great thou art!

When through the woods and forest glades I wander
and hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees,
when I look down from lofty mountain grandeur and hear the brook and feel the gentle breeze. (refrain)

When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation and take me home, what joy shall fill my heart!
Then I shall bow in humble adoration,
and there proclaim, “My God, how great thou art!” (refrain)

I Sing the Mighty Power of God

1 I sing the mighty power of God that made the mountains rise,
   that spread the flowing seas abroad and built the lofty skies.
   The moon shines full at God's command, and all the stars obey.

2 I sing the goodness of the Lord who filled the earth with food,
   God formed the creatures through the Word, and then pronounced them good.
   Lord, how thy wonders are displayed, wheresoe'er I turn my eye,

   And clouds arise, and tempests blow, by order from thy throne, while all that borrows life from thee is ever in thy care.
   and everywhere that we can be, thou, God, art present there.

With minimal revision this text brings together six of the eight four-line stanzas in an 18th-century hymn written for children and originally headed "Praise for Creation and Providence." The anonymous German tune provides a fitting sense of breadth and wonder.

The middle stanzas of this paraphrase of Psalm 8 probe the ancient but enduring paradox of declaring the grandeur of God’s creation while realizing how small mortals are in the midst of it all. These words are set to one of the most durable 18th-century English psalm tunes.

This tuneful retelling of the salvation story began in Swedish and was translated into German and then into Russian before reaching its English form. Despite such linguistic and musical revisions, it continues to be a meaningful source of comfort to many people.
